Faces in a crowd,
Youthful faces,
Young, alive, and strong,
Filled with a furious passion,
A new determination,
Brimming with a spirit, dazzling and thrilling.
It is the face of today,
The face of a new generation—
A people caught within the confines
Of an old world.
They fight to be free.
They must be free,
To tear down old conventions,
Obliterate the ugly.
To seek a newer world.
To erect a Camelot upon the ruins of hell
A better, more beautiful world—
Based on understanding,
Founded on love,
Devoted to mankind.

It will take Time,
And Pain,
And Strength,
And Patience,
And they may never live to see their new world,
But they will win,
For they are strong and alive,
And the faces are young,
And they will not surrender.

"... American, it is not easy to know what that means. But in part to be an American means to have been an outcast and a stranger, to have come to the exile's country, and to know that he who denies the outcast and stranger among us at that moment also denies America ..."

Robert F. Kennedy

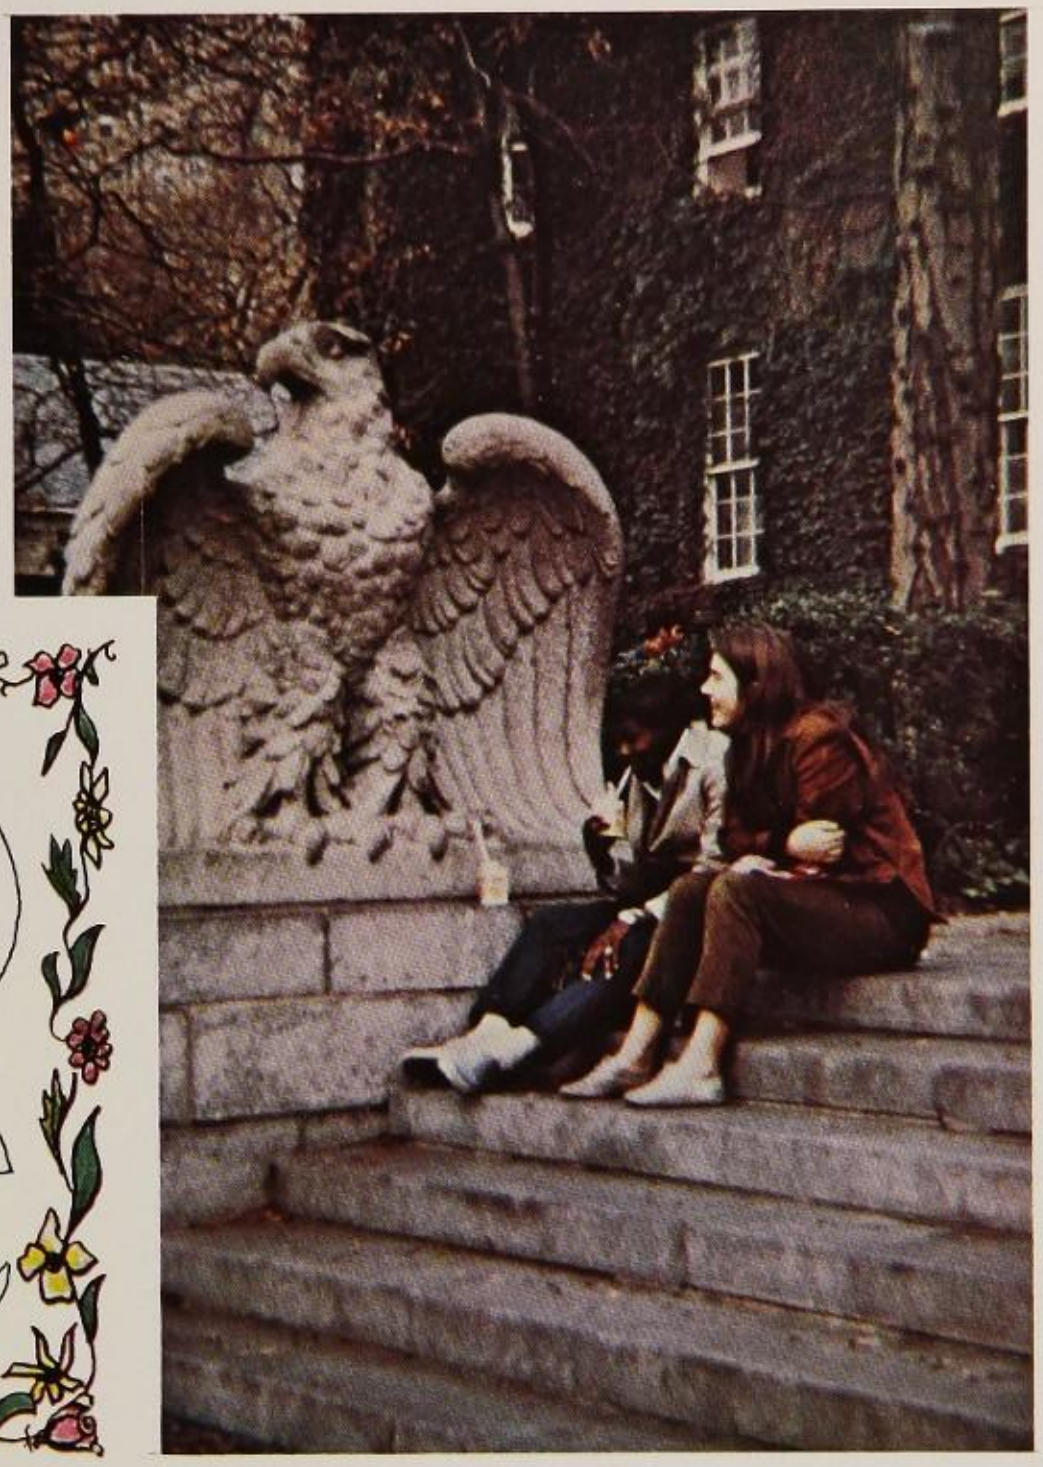
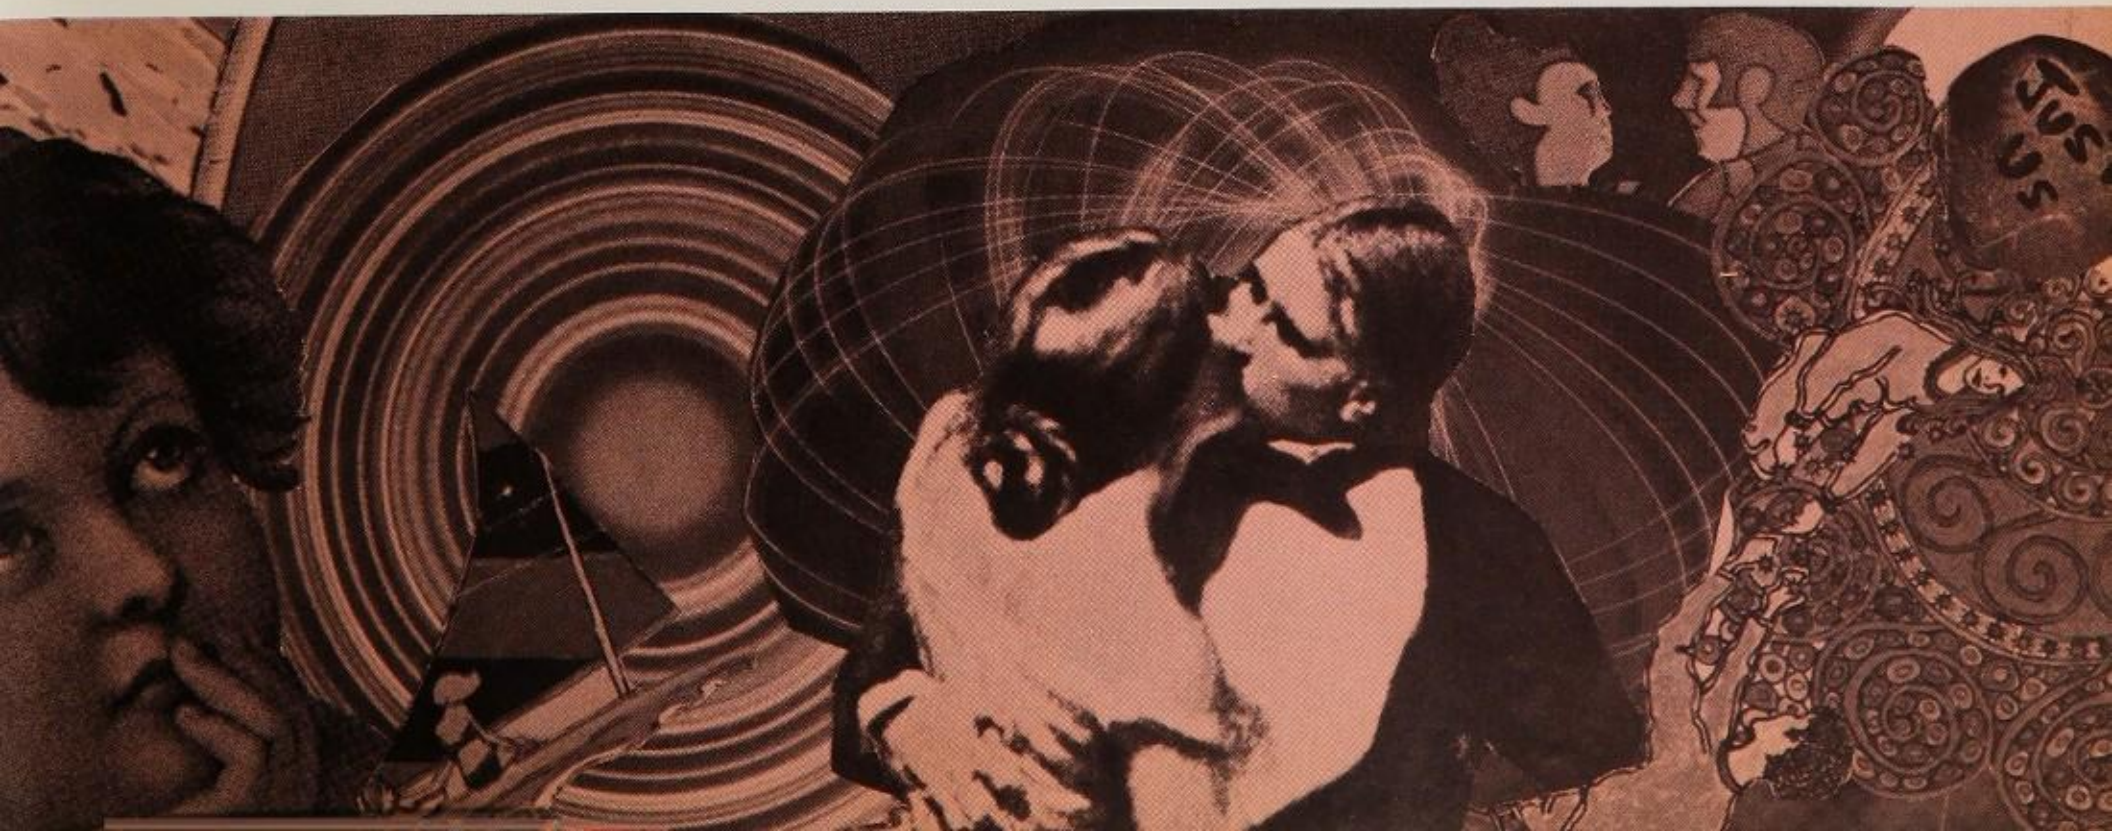
love

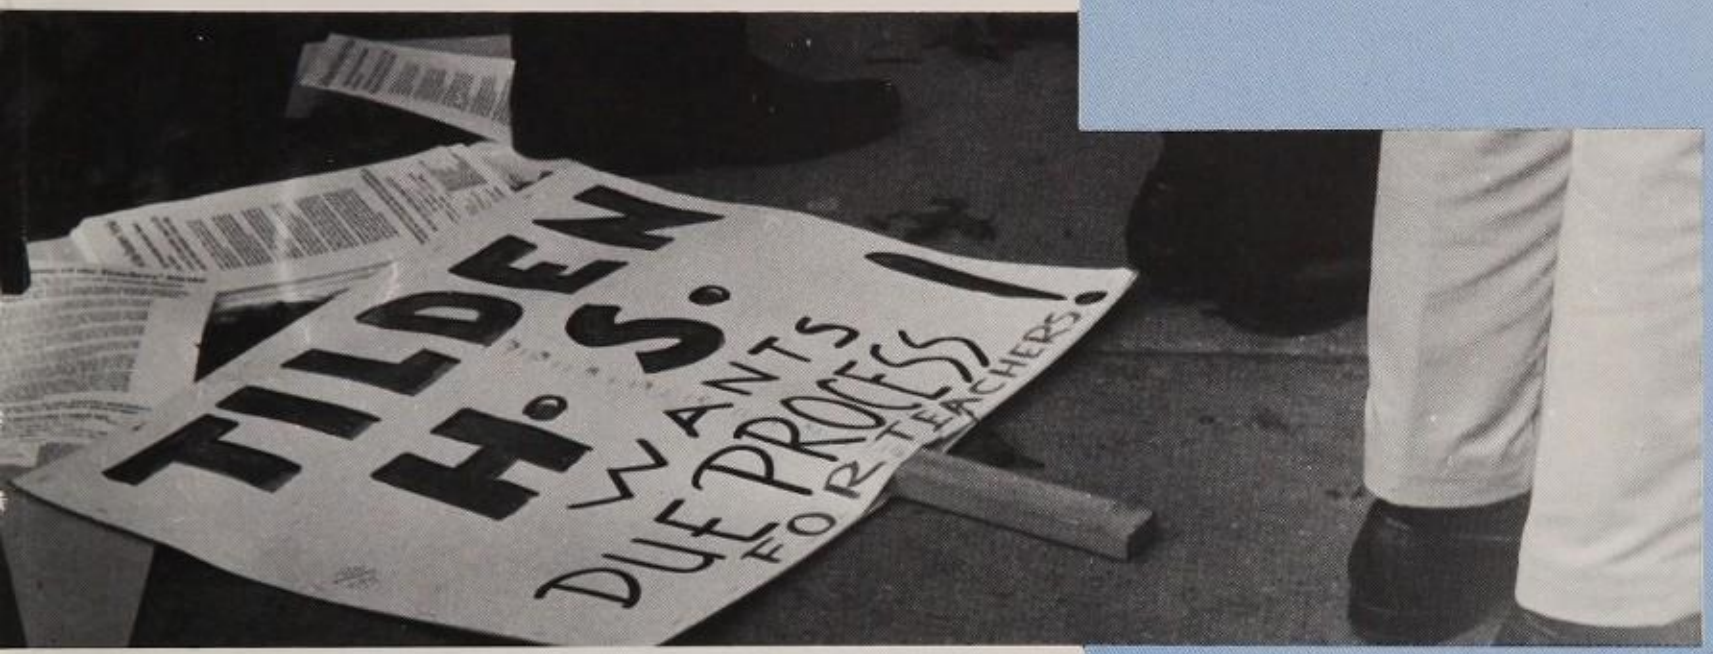


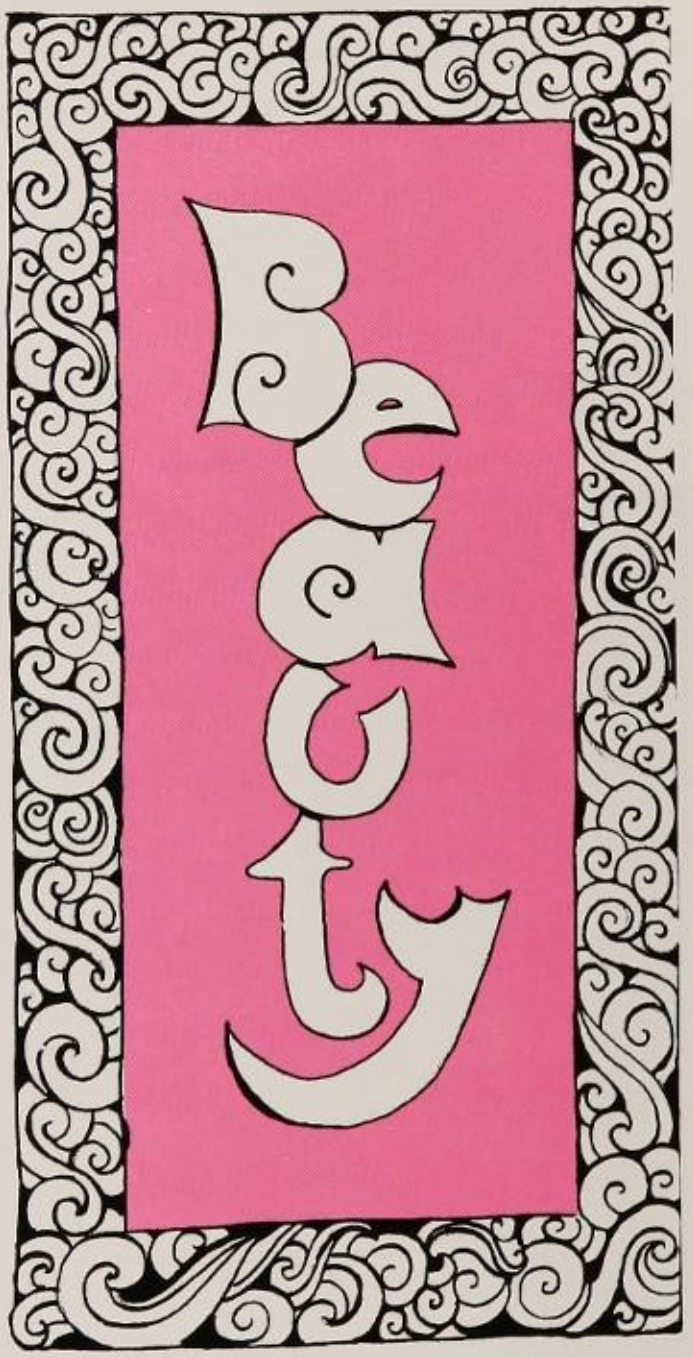


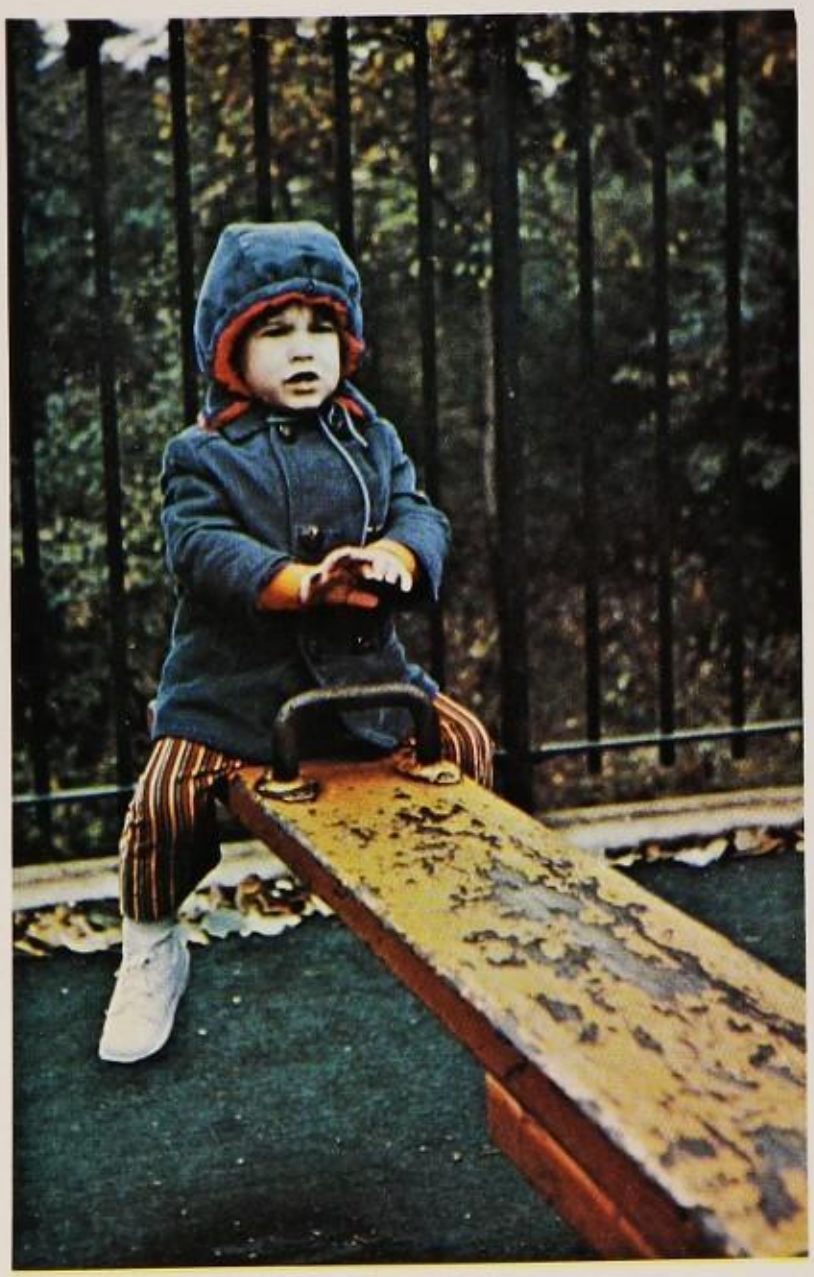
My face and fingertips no longer can pain me. Physically, I feel nothing. Yet one enormous force burns intensely within my soul, and despite the virgin fields of white New Hampshire snow, and the cold gusts of rushing wind, I continue. Windburned and red-cheeked, I, along with other young crusaders, plan to proselytize the thinking of another generation. But the snow of New Hampshire melts and the movement of pure politics evaporates along with it.

Fighting Kennedy-youth witnessed an abomination. The shot resounds in their ears and they see their hopes die within the lifeless body of Robert Kennedy. He lay bloody and still on our television screens. And the sun burns more fiercely.

As the heroes of the New Idealism were no longer here to lead our nation, youth did not rest. These dreamers are workers too. Though politically subdued they are socially active. They tutor at study centers, join VISTA, and work at Headstart. They help improve the lives of others as they re-evaluate their own.







"Though we travel the world over
To find the beautiful
We must carry it with us
Or we will find it not."

Ralph Waldo Emerson

progress

Progress is a smile and a friendly face.
Progress is the first step of a one-year old child.
Crying soldiers against an ancient, vine-covered wall sacred to three faiths;
Phillip Blaiberg and all the prayers answered by his survival;
A stark landscape against the infinite deep and "In the beginning . . ."
The lunar sunset as it creeps toward the cratered brilliance.
Progress is a weed-filled lot.
The foundation for an architectural masterpiece.
A soul-stirring hug in Mexico City by the world's greatest—and his runner-up;
Progress is love and understanding,
And the realization of the truth, no matter how painful.
Progress is the search for a better tomorrow.
Progress is a reality . . . and a dream.

Dedication

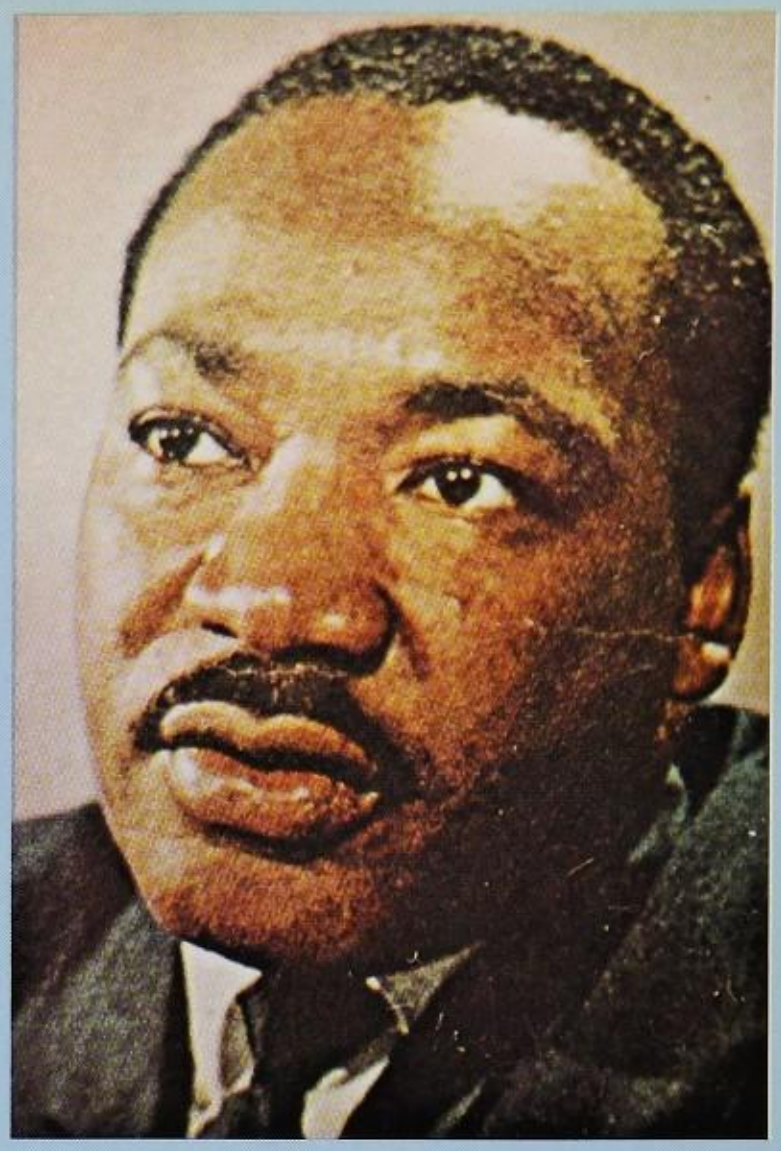
John Fitzgerald Kennedy gave the American people a dream for the future.

Martin Luther King made it possible for all Americans to realize that dream for the future.

Robert Francis Kennedy brought that dream, and the realization of that dream to the youth of the world—for they are the future.

These men are dead. They will not witness the final triumph of their ideals. For them . . . and for ourselves we dedicate our lives, as they did, to their dream . . . now ours.



I look back, Journey down a long path to where I am.
It has been a long day,
And yet the time seems so short that I hardly notice all the years that have gone by,
I was young then; I still am,
And yet I do not feel young, for it is not the same carefree youth I started with.
There are responsibilities now,
To myself and to others,
And sometimes I feel weak and tired from carrying them on my shoulders,
And often I look at the world and I feel lost and helpless,
For what can I do?
Who am I, so small in such a monstrous sea of humanity.
But I live, and I breathe, and I try,
For to surrender is to die, and I do not want to die.
I am a long, long, way from where I started,
I have a long, long, way to go.

"The lights begin to twinkle from the rocks:
The long day wanes: the slow moon climbs: the deep
Moans round with many voices.
Come, my friends,
'Tis not too late to seek a newer world.
Push off, and sitting well in order
smite
Of all the western stars, until I
die.
The sounding furrows; for my purpose holds
To sail beyond the sunset, and the baths"

Alfred, Lord Tennyson

PRINCIPAL

Dear Seniors: Perhaps no graduating class in the history of Tilden High School has undergone such disruption, unrest, and perplexing pressures. You have already accomplished something of signal importance by continuing successfully through your high school career in spite of the negative forces that operated during this past year.

It would be sad indeed if your mood were to be one of pessimism at this commencement of a new part of your life. As you look through this beautiful Yearbook now, you can see the evidences of many wonderful things that Tilden High School offered you during your stay here. The pictures will always remind you of the many-faceted programs that were available for students who wished to share the joys of our extracurricular activities.

Years from now you will be able to look back and remember fondly the games, the plays, Sing, the classrooms, and the many teachers and students with whom you had contact. How sad that so many of us do not have the ability to enjoy these experiences and profit from them when they are happening!

Youthful enthusiasm is a wonderful quality. I hope that as you leaf through the pages of your Yearbook, you will react with pleasure and not with cynicism or jaded sophistication. I hope that the years treat you kindly, and that you bring to your experiences, to your family, to your friends, and to the world a gentleness, an understanding, and the ability to enjoy the many beautiful things that life will have to offer.

Cordially,

GUIDANCE

For the novice and master, Tilden is a school filled with endless corridors, winding staircases and "mass program errors." Thus, the administration has been good enough to construct a blockade of rooms where the poor wandering soul can find comfort and solitude—the guidance offices.

Here, within rooms of shattered silence, the student can continue to brood over last year's failures, this year's faulty class assignments, and next year's entrance into college.

The girls in green, "forwards" and "guards," agile athletes wait in anxiousness for the start of their pro-basketball game. Jumpball, and action is under way. The orange cannon ball whizzes by one, two, three girls; whizzes past a leader; hits the instructor. Call in the hygiene experts! Here they come, brandishing their First-aid cards. Chaos! Hysteria!—Aren't they supposed to be calm? She lives; serenity returns. The basketball game begins once more.

BASKETBALL

The success of any basketball team depends upon a combination of experienced athletes and eager newcomers. This combination has resulted in a successful year for Tilden's 1968-1969 varsity basketball team.

Credit should be given to our outstanding three-year veteran, Kenny Gales, whose fine rebounding and defensive prowess has ignited many fast-breaks, and set up innumerable baskets. Helping Kenny on the boards were Charley Walker and Willie Hawes. In the backcourt, the mainstay was Gregory Jackson. Coordinating this team's talent was Mr. Jerry Gold whose leadership and knowledge led the team to success.

Gerald Shaber

FOOTBALL

The 1968 Football season proved to be very satisfying for the Blue Devils. After a slow start, we finally lived up to our potential and won victories over Madison, Jefferson, and Brooklyn Tech. As a result of these three straight victories, we ended the season with a 4—2 record. Though two games were lost, the Blue Devils were formidable opponents.

Tilden football players were probably the hardest-hitting ball players in the city. This is proved by the fact that seven Tilden Football players made the Daily News All City Team. The list was headed by Co-Captain Jay Cohen, who made the first team. Co-Captain Mark Zipper, Jed Marquis, Bob Roth, Tony Winn, Mike Quitko and Victor Boniolo received honorable mention. Tilden placed more ball players on this team than any other school in the city. Winning is not an occasional thing at Tilden; it is a tradition, a tradition that goes back many years. This year's Blue Devils are proud to have helped maintain that tradition.

One of the most grueling sports is track. John Jackson, John Crooks, and Curtis Newkirk are captains during the outdoor season. Lenny Friedlander and Alan Augustine captain the team during the indoor season. Craig Lackow, who recently set a new record, by running the mile in 4:21, and Raphael Pena are captains during the cross-country season. The new coach, Mr. Spielberg, has high hopes for his men and there is no apparent reason why he should be disappointed.

Mark Zipper

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times." When Charles Dickens wrotes this, he was unaware that he was predicting the trying, triumphant, and tragically defeated Tilden Swimming Team.

Not only had Richard Mullen (Captain), Mike Schwartz (Captain), Ira Auerbach, and Guy Soifer broken the 400 free-style relay race in an astonishing 4:09, but Tilden had also come out way above the surface for five straight meets. Then came the very, very disheartening climax, the brutal day of reckoning. It was a "one point" squeaking dismay for all Tildenites to see their previously undefeated swimming team defeated for the Division Championship.

We were not dismayed, though, at their fantastic ability to make us aware and proud that a great swimming team exists at Tilden.

BASEBALL

On a hot, sticky afternoon, instead of cooling off, you will find the Diamondmen practicing in the heat and dust of our field. Constantly drilling, the team is trying to even better last year's 14 victories.

Coach Glaubach referred to co - captain Sam Rabinowitz as the best ballplayer in New York City and Mal Forst as the city's best first-baseman. Charles Kroll, co-captain, Scott Boyer and Steve Decillis are all two-year veterans while Richie Lehrer is a three-year veteran. Coach Glaubach believes that this season will prove to be most rewarding.

TENNIS

In the past, the Racquetmen of Tilden High have always enjoyed a high degree of success. Because of last year's fine six-and-three record, the Tilden Tennis Team has been inspired to seek the City Championship this year. Leading the way in this endeavor are Raymond Cowan and Brian Silver.

If experience is a requirement for success, the Tilden Tennis Team will succeed this year. Lance Beckoff and Brian Silver head the list with their claim to four years of participation. Alan Eisenberg, Steve Weinberg, Raymond Cowan, and Ivan Krasner each have three years of experience. With the skill and precision exhibited by this year's Racquetmen, it seems clear that the opponents will be left in the back court.

A big hand goes to our Handball Team!

The winner of the division championship. The winner of the first play-off against Brooklyn Tech.

And then . . . a loss but a great try against Canarsie High School for the Brooklyn Championship.

BOWLING

This past year wasn't a gutterball year for the Bowling Team as Tilden wound up with one of its most striking seasons. Having a team winning fifteen games and losing two is no minor achievement. Neither is winning the Division Championship with a record of losing one game, tying one and winning nine.

Joe Lattuga placed fourth and second in the Brooklyn Individual Championship and the New York City Championship, respectively. John Cunningham was not too far behind, placing eighth and twelfth in the same two contests. Bob Aellis, voted most valuable player, received the Sheppard Goff Memorial Trophy. As you can see, the Bowling Team is rolling the ball to glory.

Foremost in our memories of Junior Sing are the people sitting in the balcony, wildly screaming at Miss Kaplan's announcement. At first we were overcome by shock, widespread and overpowering because we were only Juniors. This numbness, first, and wild cheering, second, replaced the anguished cries of despair coming from the Seniors.

With the glorious reflections of Junior Sing still in our minds, we looked forward to another Sing to be produced, performed and won.

On January 17, 1969, the senior class, who had formerly portrayed the students of "Systemized Sophs," and the pawns of "Junior Bits and Pieces," disguised themselves once more. This time the seniors emerged as witches, marching with glowing-green faces toward their final conclave

The exciting mad-dash, rush-push, hurry-hurry, win-lose frenzy of "Senior Sorcery" gave us an unforgetable victory and the audience an entertaining, thought provoking evening

AWARDS of the MONTH

September

October

September came, October went,
November made it three;
Awards to Lindsay's famous line,
"There is no strike!" said he.

November

To Donovan, Shanker and McCoy,
Goes our admiration.
Their childish bickering gave us all
Three more months vacation.

December

A special award to our principal,
In planning he is so adept.
As we opened our SAT booklets,
The boosters screamed, "Left, right, left."

January

Our Senior Sing was perfect,
Except for one "small" flaw;
An award to the guilty party:
Mighty Midget struck once more.

February

We'd like to award,
For Idea of the Season,
The closing of lockers—
Without rhyme or reason.

March

To Rockefeller we decree,
With truest dedication,
An award for budget cutting
And impairing education.

April

To colleges known for transcript dissection,
A prize for greatest cumulative rejection.

May

To the Festival of the Arts,
For its spectacular attainment,
The Ed Sullivan Award
For dynamic entertainment.

June

Then came the month of June,
With final liberation.
We award to seniors left behind,
A future graduation.

We the graduating class of 1969, being of sound minds and bodies, do hereby bequeath the following:

To Mr. Goldfarb, the medieval antiquarian,
One polly doodle and a parliamentarian.

To Mr. Chazen, a bridge player's fee,
"Seven merry berries and a weight watcher's recipe."

To Mr. Weinstein, who can take only so much,
Bacteria, bacilli, staphylococci and such.

To Miss Cannavo, a gown and an aisle,
Some jollity, merriment, and an old-fashioned smile.

To Mr. Gold, cigars and a coke,
And an entirely new set of basketball jokes.

To Mr. Traub, since English is his game,
A set of scarlet letters and a brand new first name.

To Mr. Silverman, for his well-earned share,
Some moustache wax and two tickets to Hair.

To Mrs. Sanjour, our Pallas Athena,
Mythology students whose minds are much cleaner.

To Mr. Bloomfield whose tests are fanatical,
A gift from his students: a perennial sabbatical.

When thinking of Mrs. Parker, an old proverb we recall,
If you can't say something nice, don't say anything at all.

. . . . . .

. . . . . .

To Mrs. Engelsohn, who's really quite nice,
A book telling all about bilingual vice.

To Mr. Zwerling, who never rants nor bellows,
$6.02 \times 10^{23}$ little fellows.

To Mrs. Cohen, more power to her lungs,
A method-acting manual and two Weltanschauungs.

To Mr. Flanagan, be not sad nor forlorn,
One doctoral thesis on Gouverneur Kemble Warren.

To Mr. Kerner, an A.P. defector,
An administrative raise and one lie detector;
And as a final tribute to his unique personality,
An unending supply of sophomore originality.

To Mr. Shapiro, who round and round goes,
A mimeographed list of proper school clothes,
A Spring Festival in Tilden that's a constant success,
And an enthusiastic student body "to strive for the best."

To Miss Grand, there is much we can say,
To express our thanks on our Graduation Day.

To Miss Bynoe, who taught and who led,
A sach nachas, underlined in red.

To Mr. Harnik: beware Kinrah's Law:
Students + Insults = A clean-shaven jaw.

To Mr. Meiselman and his hatred for bigots,
Some brand new puns and a few perpetual pickets.

To Mr. Leventhal, whose opinions are strong,
A non-union teacher to prove FDR wrong.

To Mr. Kevles, whose energy won't fail,
An integral part of his life: one "Hail Smail!"

To Mr. Tandler, who's really one of a kind,
A cocktail party jokebook and a history book to blow his mind.

To Mr. Hearing, who is virtue personified,
A set of French postcards and a bio course, modified.

To Uncle Ted and Topics, our bequest,
More Beatles' pictures fully dressed.

To Mr. Ruderman, who guided and led us,
A beanie and button, so he won't forget us.

To Mr. Winston, for all his civilities,
As he said to us, "you've got possibilities."
And for teaching us Sing's more than just "win or lose"
We leave, as we part, our sincere gratitude.

To Miss Kaplan, full of frolic and fun,
To our senior class, you're number one.

To Mr. Dell' Amore, whose mind is nefarious,
Two thousand good years for the age of Aquarius.

To Mrs. Miller, thanks from us all,
And cause we love you, we leave you Paul Frank or Frank Paul?

To Classic staffs of future years,
A deadline schedule and a bucket for tears.
All humor forgotten, when everything's done,
The friends and the memories really are fun.

Under the watchful and critical eyes of Mr. Arthur Daniels and Mr. Irving Koster, Classic continually brought laughter and fond memories to past graduates. We wish to thank them for establishing an organized system for us to follow in the creation of our yearbook.

Dear Graduate:

Graduation is a most important time in any family's life. A time to reflect about the many good things that have happened in the last four years ... and a time to think about the years ahead.

I am certain that you have considered furthering your education, either in college or in the many fine trade or nursing schools which are available. Perhaps you have already made a decision ... we hope it was to continue your education.

Now here's how we can help!

Under a cooperative arrangement with the New York Higher Education Assistance Corporation you may borrow from $1,000. to $1,500. a year with a maximum of $7,500. for attending college ... lesser amounts for trade schools. You make no payments and there are no interest charges while you are in school. Upon termination of studies you can take up to ten years to repay. Loans are made directly to the student ... no co-signers are needed. Dial either telephone number listed below for additional information.

May we take this occasion to congratulate you on your graduation and to wish you a successful and rewarding future.

Cordially,

Michael J. Burke

NO MAN IS AN ISLAND, entire of itself;
every man is a piece of the continent,
a part of the main;
if a clod be washed away by the sea, Europe
is the less,
as well as if a promontory were,
as well as if a manor of thy friends, or of thine own were;
any man's death diminishes me,
because I am involved in Mankind;
and therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls;
it tolls for thee.

John Donne
